An Alternative for Clean Energy Independence:
A Conversation with Jack Roush and Roy Willis
ROUSH Enterprises is a leader in the development of alternative fueled vehicles, including both electric drive and propane power ICE engines. Join Jack Roush, chairman of ROUSH Enterprises, Inc. and CEO/co-owner of Roush Fenway Racing, and Roy W. Willis, president and chief executive officer of the Propane Education & Research Council, as they discuss the role propane can play in promoting North American energy independence.

Presented by: Jack Roush, Chairman, ROUSH Enterprises, Inc. and CEO/Co-Owner Roush Fenway Racing (Livonia, MI); and Roy W. Willis, President and Chief Executive Officer, Propane Education & Research Council (Washington, DC)
